

Attention Property Owners

The Evans County Tax Assessor's Office is currently doing a county wide revaluation. GMASS is the contractor, and they will be out visiting every property in the county. The contractors should have identification on themselves, and their vehicle should be marked.